Spirit of the Living God

Unison Prayer of Confession

Present and ever-joy-filled God, we come to you this morning confessing that we are people who worry and so, react. When frightening news looms on the horizon, we bare the grocery store shelves and hunker down. We lose our faith in the broader purposes of service that you invite us to grasp. We forget that we are your children and so give up the treasures that neither rust nor moth consume. We shut out others even while you promise that we are sisters and brothers in Jesus' family. Heal our despair. Let us be desperate to seek justice and mercy. Renew a right spirit in us. Amen.
