Unison Prayer of Confession

Holy God, we acknowledge our sins and shortcomings to you. These come in many sizes and shapes – from personal failings and excesses to social injustices and habits that seem to wrong to fix, but mark our well-being and our communities, nevertheless. Before we confess our personal failures, we first take a moment to lament what are the mistaken directions of our society

Acknowledging that we are caught up in these sins that are beyond us, we also confess the wrong that we have done and the injustice that we have left undone ...

Having confessed the sins that our personally ours and the world's sins that we cannot escape, we also confess that you are a God of forgiveness and new hope, shown so completely through our loving, Lord Jesus Christ. In his name we pray. Amen.
