Hymn #432 How Clear Is Our Vocation, Lord REPTON

Unison Prayer of Confession

You've spun the heavens and formed our living planet out of rock and clay, God. When Israel was captive in Egypt, you brought them out with a strong hand that they might live as free people, who are governed by justice and mercy. When sin left us alienated from you and your purposes, you came among us born in human likeness. In Jesus you welcomed the outcast. You suffered atrocities that seemed irredeemable. You sought and found us. You forgave us and brought us to new life. You are an amazing God! So, don't let us get stuck in our sins. Through your forgiveness help us to act with boldness where we might have withdrawn and given up. Where Easy Street seems like the best choice, give us the courage to be moved to justice and good, especially when we see wrong visited on others. Yes, we are sinners, but you came making us your children again. Help us to live up to that calling in that name. Amen.
